RADICAL RASCALITY.

They Attempt to "Repeat" at the Polls.

South Carolina Negroes Voting.

Arrest of Two Radical Illegal Voters.

Negro Mob Attempt to Rescue.

Foiled by Celerity and Gallantry of the Atlanta Police.

Early this morning the negroes assembled at the City Hall and crowded the polls. They voted rapidly. Their tickets were for Walker, Howell, Calhoun and Hubner. Their evident design is to defeat Colonel Hoge. That they are carrying out the design of their leaders to instigate riot and bloodshed is patent. Their plans have evidently been preconcerted to carry the election by force and fraud.

That they were casting illegal votes was generally believed. Many expedients to catch them were suggested. Some proposed Toombs' idea of "chalking the backs" of the Radical voters. A surer and more certain plan was adopted. Soon Henry James, a South Carolina darkey, was detected and arrested for illegal voting, and J. C. Decatur for voting twice.

The police started with Decatur towards the Station House down Hunter street. A negro mob started down the street with the design of rescuing the prisoner. Cries of "Take him away!" "Come on, boys!" were heard, and a number were observed to draw their pistols ready for action. On pushed the policemen with the prisoner, with the mob in full cry after them. Other members of the police force rallied, and with praiseworthy promptitude, headed the mob before they reached the prisoner. The mob were checked by the intrepidity and gallant conduct of the Police.

The prisoner was safely locked up in the Station House.

Had the Police been a moment or two later, a riot would have taken place, attended by loss of life. The police deserve the thanks of the public for their efforts in preserving the public peace. The action of the negro mob was reprehensible in the extreme.

MORE ASTOUNDING FRAUD.

A Sequel to the Credit Mobilier Bribery.

Spurious Bonds of the Pacific Railroad Shoved in the Market with the Knowledge of Secretary Boutwell—No Steps Taken to Investigate the Fraud.

WASHINGTON, September 22.—The astounding revelations made by Col. Harry McComb of the corruption and bribery practiced by Oakes Ames, while he was Chairman of the House Committee on the Pacific Railroad to secure favorable legislation from Congress, naturally awakens inquiry as to the probable cost of the Pacific Railroad to the people of the United States. It is well known that the Union Pacific Railroad Company has never paid a dollar of interest on the bonds guaranteed by the Government, and that it has made no provision to do so. By the terms of the act of 1864, amending their charter, a provison was made to secure at least a portion of this interest in the government by withholding from the company all compensation for the transportation of troops, military supplies, and carrying the mails, but this was repealed through the influence of Oakes Ames' bribed Congressmen, who aided him tack on an amendment to the army appropriation bill of 1873, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay over to Ames and the rest of the Credit Mobilier people one-half of the amount so withheld. The act of 1864, unfortunately for the people of this country, also gave the company the right to issue first mortgage bonds in amount equal to those issued by the government, and compelled the government to accept a secondary security for its protection.

The bonds issued by the railroad company were printed in New York, and very little care was taken to guard against an over-issue, or to properly guard the plates from which they were printed. I am informed that it was a notorious fact at the time that great quantities of these bonds were in the hands of professional thieves, and disposed of by them through the usual channels. Colonel William P. Wood, late chief of the secret service division of the Treasury Department, informs me that New York was flooded with these bonds, genuine and perfect in every respect save the signatures and numbers—a small business for an expert forger to complete. He says further that he called the attention of the Treasury Department to this fact, and to make it perfectly clear and evident to Secretary Boutwell he obtained one of these bonds and delivered it to Mr. Boutwell's private secretary, and took the following receipt for the same:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Aug. 11, 1869.

Received of Wm. P. Wood, to be given to the Secretary of the Treasury, one $1,000 bond, with all the coupons attached, both bond and coupons in blank and unnumbered, of the Sioux City Pacific Railroad Company, which he (Mr. Wood) declares to be a genuine bond.

[Signed] E. C. BARTLETT,
Private Secretary.

Col. Wood further declares that no steps were taken by the secretary to investigate this matter, and these bonds in considerable numbers are every now and then shoved upon the market. There is no doubt about this, and the company to-day has no certain idea of the extent of these operations. Of course every one of these illegally-issued bonds makes the government's secondary security that much more insecure. Why did not Secretary Boutwell look after the interests of people when he had such positive proof of the fraud submitted to him? Was it in the interest of Oakes Ames and the Credit Mobilier that bonds were allowed to be issued in this careless manner? They certainly must have shared in the profits of this transaction.

General Campaign Notes

Ben Butler, to show how the Ku-Klux frighten the poor negroes, exhibits on the stump the kind of disguises worn by the Ku-Klux, hideous specters made to look like the Devil. With Ben Butler's face in the background, the spectacle must be hideous enough. Gen. Hayes, of Ohio, carries round a private ape, Alf Burnett, who does a night cap and caricatures Horace Greeley. Nashville theater goers will remember Burnett.

The North Carolina Cherokees, numbering fully six hundred voters, who are citizens of the State, and, according to the officially expressed opinion of the State Attorney General, clearly entitled to the right of suffrage, were not allowed to vote at the late gubernatorial election.

These Indians are thoroughly civilized, own their lands individually, have churches and schools, and are worthy and law abiding men. They are anxious for an opportunity to put in their votes against an Administration which has so outrageously defrauded them of their just rights. Here we say, "600 more for Uncle Horace."

That a vile and dishonest use has been made of the mails, and that the franking privilege has been grossly misused for the utterance of campaign documents, will be no news to our readers. But a recent case, that comes near home, is that of a dastardly and false attack on Horace Greeley and his anti-Southern record, distributed broadcast 1st effect in the Southern States "J. H. Platt, M. C." is the frank on some ten thousand of this lying tract, recently received at the one little postoffice of Pascagoula. The intention is to use them in that portion of Mississippi; but if one insignificant office like this is crowded with ten thousand, to what extent must the great central postoffices show the robbery of the people? Washington dates of the 23d inst. assert that on that day the Radical committee sent twenty-six large mail bags full of documents to Pennsylvania for distribution. They also sent large amounts to Indiana and Ohio.

MACON, GA., October 2, 1872.

Last night Jeff Long, the notorious negro and Grant colored leader, gathered a band of three hundred negroes, armed to the teeth, and took possession of the Court House and declared his purpose to hold it and control the election.

This morning at 8 o'clock the managers went up to enter upon their duties, when Long and his band attacked them, and began a desperate fight. The riot raged furiously for a while. The whites exhausted every effort to keep the peace, but were at length compelled to defend themselves and put down the rioters. The fight resulted in the death of William Cochran, a white blacksmith of the Macon and Brunswick Railroad. Eight negroes were shot. One was killed. Another is reported dying.

Quiet has been restored. The negroes refuse to vote, though urged by the whites.

Jeff Long, the incendiary leader of the riots and the instigator of the whole lamentable affair, has been arrested.

GEORGIA, Fulton County.

To the Superior Court of said county:

YOUR petitioner, Paul Jones, Senior, showeth that in due course of trade and for a valuable consideration, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by purchase from Jesse C. Kyle, he acquired title to a promissory note (here to the Court shown) for the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, made by Amy H Sells, W A S Rondeau and P H Snook, payable to said Kyle, or bearer, dated February 13th, 1871, and due on or before the first day of January, 1873; and that at the same time he, by assignment from the said Kyle, acquired title to a mortgage deed, (here also to the Court shown) executed by said Amy H. Sells to said Kyle and his assigns, to secure the payment of said note, and bearing even date therewith; which mortgage deed covers and embraces all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the county of Atlanta, and being part of A J Orme's subdivision of block number one hundred and forty-six, in original lot number fifty-one, in the fourteenth district of originally Henry now Fulton county—said portion fronting north on East Harris street, one hundred and eighty-three feet and running back on Baker street, two hundred and two feet, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said premises in anywise belonging.

Your petitioner avers that the condition of said mortgage deed is broken, that said note is wholly unpaid, and that the amount due thereon is eight thousand dollars, principal, besides lawful interest from maturity. He therefore prays that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that the usual rule to that end be granted and served according to law.

L. E. BLECKLEY,
June 7, 1872. Petitioner's Attorney.

On filing the foregoing petition, it is ordered by the court that the said mortgagor, Amy H. Sells, pay into court on or before the first day of the next term, to wit, the second Monday in October next, the principal, interest and costs, or show cause why the equity of redemption in and to the said mortgaged premises should not be forever barred and foreclosed; and that this rule be served as prescribed by law.

ATLANTA:

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1872.

Radicalism Routed---Horse, Foot and Dragoons!

Georgia Sends Greeting to Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

A Booming Big Gun for Greeley, Our Next President.

At Least 40,000 Majority for Gov. Smith.

Our columns are so full that we have space only to state the glorious result. Some thirty counties have been heard from, giving a majority for Smith of fifteen or sixteen thousand, and indicating a majority in the State of forty or fifty thousand. The Legislature will be overwhelmingly Democratic.

☞ Fulton county will give a majority of at least 1,200 for Smith.

☞ The Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of the Interior, Secretary of the Navy, Postmaster General, Attorney General, Register of the Treasury, Commissioner of Pensions, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Commissioner of Patents, several Auditors of the Treasury, and hosts of others are out on electioneering tours, and some of them have been absent for several months together, with the full knowledge and consent of the President.

The Senate Vote on the Press Matter.

We published a few days ago from an exchange the yeas and nays of Senators. But we hasten to say that the vote does not give the true status of members on the matter. Among those voting in the affirmative are some of the very warmest supporters of the Press. They voted to lay on the table because they did not think it advisable to press the vote at that time. The following is the vote, but does not show the true position of those voting. Will the Press take special note of this matter?

Yeas—Brown, Cameron, Cone, Crayton, Deveaux, Griffin, Heard, Hoyle, Jones, Kirkland, Mathews, Nichols, Park, Peddy, Reese, Steadman and Wallace—17.

Nays—Bruton, Campbell, Candler, Clark, Conley, Estes, Erwin, Hillyer, Kibbee, Lester, Simmons, Smith, Styles and Wellborn—15.

Greeley's Western Tour.

Greeley is at home from one of the most remarkable ovations ever given to a private citizen or a public official.

His Western tour is a wonder and will be classed among the historic curiosities of the country. Everywhere the people have turned out in overwhelming numbers, and have greeted him with an enthusiasm that absolutely knew no bounds.

If his enemies had been called on to state what they would have wished him to do to damage his cause they would have promptly told him to make this Western tour and deliver a dozen speeches a day. His known propensity to independent thinking and frank talking, and the great danger of much speaking resulting in imprudent and foolish speaking would have inspired them with hopes of inevitable injury to himself.

But he has disappointed them. He made lots of speeches, and made them impromptu. He has talked on the spur of the moment to a succession of delirious crowds, that welcomed him like a king and feathered his vanity in every possible way.

His enemies have watched him with hawk eyes, and hung on his utterance to catch every syllable that could be used against him. For days he has gone through this trying ordeal and gallantly has he borne himself.

He has shown himself a great orator and statesman as well as a great editor. His utterances have been in the highest degree national, unexceptionable and statesmanlike. They have been marked by a singular discretion. Bold, free, frank and direct, he has grappled with the great questions of reconciliation and reform in a masterly manner, going right home to the public heart, and steadily growing in the esteem and admiration of the people.

He has done himself and the cause great good.

True Words.

Ex-Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania, in his speech announcing his support of Buckalew, the Democratic candidate, uttered a grand truth in the following words:

Of all the men engaged in the war, the most forgiving men were those who fought it out. The real soldier soon forgot his injuries and woos in a desire to make this country prosperous, to return to friendship for those warring States; to give us peace—Heaven-born and blessed peace, and never again return to fierce struggle and sectional hate."

It is the real soldiers of the war—the men of deeds—who are the real pacificators. The bitterest men are those who did not do any fighting to hurt. But the soldiers who stood the brunt of the battles are the men who are sincerely desiring peace.

Greeley represents the great idea of a national reconciliation. On this idea are planted our grand soldiers—our Johnstons, Beauregards, Hamptons, Bennings, Gordons, Colquitts, and others of the same brave stamp.

We go with them heartily, cordially, ardently, on their chosen programme for Southern redemption. Their brave hearts were the country's bulwarks in the days of battle. Their glorious deeds made Southern chivalry luminous. Now, in the hour of re-establishing nationality, that is to put the South on her feet again, these truest spirits of the Southern blood are found in the vaen again, sacrificing prejudices and heroically contending for the best interest of their people.

Let us not be told that the course that these men pursue is an abandonment of principles. If it was they would not do it.

They did not flinch or go wrong in the trying days of war. They were our shining lights then. They will not betray us now. It is not likely that they are all wrong now, and that those only are right who failed us in the country's need.

The Blanton Duncans took fat contracts and did no fighting. They are the superperfect spirits whose principles are to-day outraged at the support of Greeley. The noble heroes who bore the brunt of the fighting see in Greeley's support the restoration of peace, prosperity and constitutional government.

Who were right in the dark days?

Who are right now?

DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA.

Delivered in Atlanta, Tuesday, October 1, 1872.

[REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION BY HENRY JACKSON, SUPREME COURT REPORTER.]

Joseph R. Veal, administrator of W. S. Skidmore vs. Virgil S. Allen, et. al. Rule against Sheriff, from Fulton.

MONTGOMERY, J.

Where, in a rule against a sheriff for failure to sell realty levied on, it appeared from his answer, which was not traversed, that a claim had been interposed and that though inadvertence, the magistrate, who took the claimants affidavit, failed to sign the jurat, but that to the best of the sheriff's knowledge and belief the affidavit was sworn to before the magistrate; and it also appeared that there was a failure to insert any amount of penalty in the claim bond; and it was agreed between the parties that the Justice of the Peace and the surety upon the claim bond are to be considered as present and ready to consent to or make any amendment of certificate of or pertaining to the claim papers consistent with the facts of the case, which at that stage of the proceedings, could legally be made," and it further appeared that the client was also willing to the correction, and an order was taken refering the cause to the Judge at chambers.

HELD, 1st, That the decision of the Judge permitting the magistrate to sign the jurat nunc pro tunc was a finding upon the issue of fact as to whether the affidavit had been sworn to or not before the magistrate, which was warranted, in the absence of contradiction, by the sheriff's answer, that to the best of his knowledge and belief it had been so sworn to.

2. It was not error, as a matter of law, to permit the signing nunc pro tunc.

3. The obligors consenting, the bond was properly adjudged to be amendable.

Judgment affirmed.

E. N. Broyles, for plaintiff in error.

Hillyer & Bro., for defendant.

Southwestern Railroad Company vs. W. W. Chapman, et. al. Injunction, from Bibb.

McCAY, J.

Section 1794 of the Code declaring that a natural guardian is not entitled to de nand or receive the property of a minor, until he or she has given bond to the Ordinary, does not make such receipt illegal in such a sense, as that the person paying it cannot recover it back, or show that it has, in fact, been accounted for by the natural guardian to the ward, or applied to the benefit of the ward.

Where a bill in equity was filed by a railroad company alleging that it had paid the dividends on certain shares of stock belonging to a minor to the mother of the minor, the father being dead; that the mother had appropriated the money paid to the necessary uses and expenses of the minor; that a guardian of the minor had been subsequently appointed who had brought suit against the railroad, and obtained a judgment for the dividends; that on the trial of the suit this defense of the company had been disallowed by the Court on the ground that it was not a good defense at law, since the mother was not a party to the suit; that final judgement had given a lien against the company in favor of the guardians who was about to proceed to collect the money by execution—that the mother was insolvent and that no accounting had been had between the guardian and the mother, for the expenditures for which this money was used. The bill prayed that the judgment at law might be enjoined, until an account should be taken, as to the amount due from the ward's estate to the mother, for said expenditures, and that the amount when found should be applied to the judgement.

HELD, That the Judge ought to have granted the injunction.

Judgment reversed.

Lyon & Irwin, for plaintiff in error.

Poe, Hall & Poe, for defendants.

Montgomery, J. concurred, but furnished no written opinion.

WARNER, C. J., dissenting.

This bill filed by the complainant against the defendants to enjoin the collection of a judgment obtained for certain described dividends on railroad stock, which was the property of the defendant's infant ward, and which it is alleged, was paid by the complainant to the mother and natural guardian of the infant, and which had been used and appropriated for the benefit of the ward. There is no sufficient excuse or reason stated why this bill was not filed when the action in which the judgment was rendered was pending in the Common Law Court, if indeed, the complainant was entitled to the relief now sought. But, in my judgment, the complainant is not entitled to the relief prayed for. The dividends of the stock was the property of the infant ward, the mother, to whom the complainants paid them, was her natural guardian. The 1794th section of the Code declares that the natural guardian cannot demand or receive the property of the child until a guardian's bond is filed and accepted by the Ordinary, which it is not pretended, was done in this case. This provision of the Code is a wise one, and was intended for the protection of infants and a Court of equity, has no more power or authority to disregard and violate the provisions of a positive statute than a court of law, or to grant any relief to a party who has violated it. From what source does a Court of equity derive its power and authority to dispense with and disregard the provisions of a positive statute? A positive statute, when enacted in pursuance of the constitution, prescribes a rule of conduct for the government of Courts of equity as well as Courts of law, no matter what abstract notions of justice the Courts may entertain of the cases controled by it. If it was otherwise, the rights of the citizen would be entirely dependent upon the Judge's notions of abstract equity, instead of the positive law prescribed by the supreme power of the State for their government. The complainant having paid the dividends in violation of the provisions of a positive statute, and in violation of the public policy of the State, as manifested by that statute, a Court of equity cannot grant the relief prayed for, any more than a Court of law could have done.

Georgia National Bank vs. Felix. G. Henderson. Case, from Fulton.

McCAY, J.

When a note, payable at bank, is placed in a bank for collection, it is the duty of the bank to see to it that it is properly presented for payment, and on its dishonor, to have it duly protested, and notice given to the endorser.

2. Where a bill of exchange, payable at ——, was sent to a bank for collection, and the bank treating it as a bank check, and not entitled to days of grace, presented it for payment, and had it protested, etc., on the day of its maturity, without days of grace, by means of which the endorser was discharged, and it was in evidence, that the bank was notified by the endorser at the time that he claimed the paper to have days grace.

HELD, That the bank was liable to the person who deposited the paper for collection for damages, for its negligence in not presenting the check, as required by law, and causing notice of its non-payment to be given to the enderser.

3. The present holder of a negotiable promisory note or bill of exchange is prima facie, presumed to have acquired titled thereto before its maturity, and in a suit by the holder against a bank to which the paper was sent for collection for failing to present it for payment, and failing to notify the endorser of its dishonor, the present holder is prima facie presumed to have been the holder at the maturity of the paper.

Judgment affirmed.

Collier, Mynatt & Collier, for plaintiff in error.

William Ezzard, Hulsey & Tigner, for defendant.

WARNER, C. J., concurring.

The plaintiff brought his action against the defendant to recover damages for carelessly and negligently performing its duty in relation to the collection of a certain bill of exchange placed in its hands for that purpose, of which the following is a copy:

"ATLANTA, GA., August 4, 1868.

GEORGIA NATIONAL BANK OF ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

"Ninety days after date pay to F. R. Bell or order one thousand dollars.

"MASSEY & HENRY.

"Indorsed by F. R. Bell and John D. Pope."

The plaintiff alleges that the defendant protested the bill, and gave notice to Pope, the indorser, (the only responsible party to the bill,) the day it became due, without allowing the three days of grace as he should have done, whereby Pope, the indorser, was discharged, and he lost his debt. When the case of Henderson vs. Pope was before this Court at a former term (see 39th Ga. Rep., 301,) this Court held and decided that the above described paper was a bill of exchange, and not being payable either at sight or on demand, was entitled to the three days of grace before being protested for non-payment, and that Pope, the indorser, was discharged, and the question now is whether the defendant is liable under the law to the plaintiff, for the loss which he has sustained in consequence of the negligent and unskilful manner in which it performed its duty in undertaking to collect the bill placed in its hands for that purpose. Contracts implied by reason and construction of law, arise upon the supposition, that any one who undertakes any office, employment, trust, or duty, contracts with those who employ or trust him, to perform it with integrity, diligence, and skill, and if by his want of either of those qualities, any injury accrues to individuals, they therefore have their remedy in damages by a special action on the case, 3d Blac. Com. 163. The defendant undertook to collect the plaintiff's bill for the customary compensation, and was bound to exercise the necessary skill, and diligence, for the accomplishment of that object, to know when the bill became due, and in case of non-payment, to have it protested, and due notice given to the parties thereto in the manner required by law, and if the defendant failed to do so, it is liable to the plaintiff for the damages sustained in consequence of such failure, and unskilful conduct. The defendant was bound to know when it undertook the collection of the paper for the plaintiff, that it was a bill of exchange, that it became due on the last day of grace, the same not being due at sight, or on demand, that in case of non-payment on the last day of grace, it should then be protested, and notice given to the indorser in order to hold him liable for the payment of the bill. If the defendant did not know these things, then it ought to have taken down its sign and quit the business of collecting commercial paper. The defendant, however, did seem to know that the bill should be protested for non-payment, and notice given to the indorser, and undertook to do it, but did it in such a negligent, unskilful manner that the indorser was discharged in consequence thereof, although the evidence in the record shows that the defendant was requested not to protest the bill for non-payment until the last day of grace. But it is said that the defendant did not know that days of grace were allowed on this bill of exchange. Well, all I have to say in regard to that is, that such has been the law, at least, ever since Blackstone wrote his Commentaries on the common law, and has been so recognized by the commercial world ever since that time, and long before. It is also said that the defendant did not know that the bill of exchange was entitled to the three days of grace because it was drawn upon, and payable at a chartered bank. A chartered bank is an artificial person, and a bill of exchange may as well be drawn upon and made payable to an artificial person, as to a natural person, the three days of grace are allowed as well on bills drawn upon and payable to artificial persons, as to natural persons, there is no distinction as to the time when a bill of exchange becomes due between one drawn upon and payable at a bank, and one payable to a natural person, both become due on the last day of grace, unless under our Code, the bill is payable at a bank on sight, or on demand. Why should there ever have been any difference as to the allowance of days of grace between a bill drawn upon and payable to a chartered bank, and one drawn upon and payable to a natural person. The truth is, the same principles of commercial law apply to both, so far as the allowance of days of grace are concerned, and did, when this bill of exchange was placed in the defendant's hands for collection, except checks drawn on a bank payable at sight or on demand. To say that any doubt existed among lawyers, or commercial bankers, as to whether a bill drawn upon and payable at a chartered bank, ninety days after date, was not entitled to the three days of grace at the time the paper was placed in the defendant's hands for collection, would be to impeach their knowledge of commercial law for the purpose of making out a plausible defence for the defendant in this case, which the law does not uphold or sanction. Downer vs. The Madison County Bank, 6th Hill's N. Y. Rep. 648. Having concurred in the the judgment of this Court in Henderson vs. Pope that the indorser was discharged for the want of a legal protest and notice to him, I will not now stultify myself by holding that the defendant is not liable for its negligence and unskillful conduct in causing the plaintiff to lose his debt.

In my judgment there was no error in the charge of the Court to the jury and the verdict was right under the evidence in the case.

MONTGOMERY, J., dissenting.

1. Whether a bank check payable at a future date is entitled to days of grace in Georgia, was, to say the least of it, a very doubtful question before the decision of this Court in Henderson vs. Pope, 39 Ga. 361.

2. A bank in which such a paper was deposited for collection, was a bailee for hire, and bound to ordinary diligence. If the bank, in good faith, before the decision referred to, had the paper protested for non-payment on the day it fell due without grace, and notified the indorsers, but did not protest it on the last day of grace, it exercised ordinary diligence, and is not responsible for the mistake at the instance of the holder who gave no instructions as to the protest of the paper, and this, notwithstanding an indorser on the paper, told the officers of the bank that it was entitled to grace.

MRS FORRESTER'S STORY.

A Boston School Girl Eloping with a Gambler and a Thief.

Since the arrest of the noted desperado, Billy Forrester, in Washington, charged with the murder of Benjamin Nathan, public expectation has been on tiptoe for everything connected with his charmed career, and the least incident or fact touching his residence in Memphis has been read with more than usual avidity.

The fact having been publicly stated that his wife was at present in Memphis, an Appeal man called at her residence yesterday in order to interview her. With a grace and ease which would have done honor to one occupying a far different situation, Mrs. Forrester received the reporter, and immediately placed his mind at ease by politely informing the "knight of the pencil" that she had no objections to answering any questions he might see fit to ask her.

Mrs. Forrester is a natural blonde, a little above the medium height of women, with little blue eyes, in which there is a pleasing expression, round face, nose slightly aquiline, small mouth, which, when she speaks discloses a perfect set of teeth, with an expression more than ordinarily intellectual, of a graceful figure, slightly given to embonpoint, and converses with an ease and fluency not often found in females of her present station in life.

I am the lawfully wedded wife of Billy Forrester. I married him as Alexander McClemons. I was married in Postsmouth, N. H., on the 17th of October, 1869. I was married by a 'Squire. At that time I did not know my husband as Billy Forrester. He was a gambler when I married him. I was at the Grammar School, on Blossom street, in Boston, when I met him. I knew nothing about his history until I arrived in New Orleans in June, 1871. Two weeks after we arrived, he was arrested as an escaped convict from the Illinois State Prison. This was the first intimation I had of what kind of a man he was. I was sixteen years and eleven months old when I married him. On his release from custody in New Orleans he left me at 141 second street, kept by a Mrs. Connors. This was on the 2d day of Febuary, 1871. Since that time I have never heard from him or seen him. I remained six months at Mr. Conners', 86 Girard street. I left Mrs. Connors' because I did not like her. I remained with John Connors from March untill the 18th day of July when I then came to Memphis and stopped at the Commercial Hotel two weeks, Lebeer House three weeks. The date of the murder is the 29th day of July, 1871. On that night Forrester was in bed with me at 86 Girard street, New Orleans. I have read so much of the Nathan murder that the date is well fixed in my mind, so that there can be no possibility of Forrester ever having killed Nathan. I again state that I have not seen Billy since February, 1871. If I had heard word from him I never would be found where I am, for it was the want of money, that drove me where I am. I could not go home for I was afraid of my parents, as I eloped from the school in Boston with Forrester.

Mrs. Forrester then told the reporter her maiden name (Molley Clemens) and the residence of some of her relatives, who are of the most respectable walks in life, and which are withheld, as they are of little importance.

The discrepancy in dates in her statement is difficult to account for. If she had never heard from or seen Forrestor since the 19th day of February, how could she have been with him at 86 Girard street, New Orleans, on the night of the Nathan murder, which took place on the 29th day of July, subsequent to the time that she states he left her at Mrs. Connors'? These two statements do not agree.—Memphis Appeal.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, October 2.—Secretary Fish has arrived here to remain during the winter.

Captain Alvard and Superintendent Enoch Heag arrived this afternoon with 51 wild Indians.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 2.—The election passed of quietly. Richmond county has gone Democratic by 800 majority, being a gain on Bullock's election of over 2,000. The returns come in slowly and nothing official can be given until to-morrow. There is no doubt of the Democrats carrying the State by an overwhelming majority thus securing Smith's election by many thousands. Great enthusiasm is manifested. The city is illuminated by bonfires. Greeley and Brown flags were raised and saluted with artillery.

MACON, GA., October 2.—A fight occurred at the polls in Macon to-day, growing out of another attempt by the negroes to take possession of the polls, a device which they have successfully practiced here on the last three elections. Very early in the morning they massed at the City Hall and marched down to the polls at the Court House in a column under the command of their Captains, Lieutenants and Sergeants. There they found a small crowd, principally whites, and commenced crowding upon them and forcing them away from the polls. A few fist cuffs occurred in the dense mass, and then a discharge of brick bats came from the negroes, followed by an order from their leader Jeff Long, to fire upon the whites. In the course of a few seconds about 50 pistol shots were discharged from both sides by which one white man was killed, and some five or six negroes were wounded, two of whom have since died. The attack from the negroes and these general facts are substantiated by numerous affidavits before the venerable Judge Cole of this circuit, who was in the court house, and himself a witness from a window, that the negroes commenced the affray. After the affray, which lasted but a few moments, the bulk of the negroes left in haste and disorder, swearing that they would give up the election; that they had been driven from the polls by violence and could get no chance to vote. They assembled again at the City Hall, where they were addressed by the Mayor, guaranteeing them perfect protection from a strong force of special police which had been sworn in for the day and a free access to the polls when with but few exceptions they refused to vote and many have gone to their homes. The whole of this deplorable affair is simply the result of another attempt by the negroes to carry this precinct by storm and a turn purpose of the whites to prevent it. All quiet at this time.

SAVANNAH, GA., 1 o'clock P. M., October 2.—J. E. Bryant, Deputy Collector of this port, attempted to create a riot at the polls to-day. He was ordered off by the Deputy Sheriff. He resisted, and attempted to draw a pistol when he was struck over the head with a club by the officer, and taken off. He is now in confinement. The election thus far is progressing quietly.

Bradley, the negro who for the past two weeks, has been exciting the negroes to riot and incendiarism, left the city last night for South Carolina, and has not yet returned.

The reports from Liberty County say the Democrats are ten to one. This is a strong negro county. The Radical leaders have collected the poll tax from the negroes and have given them bogus receipts for which they claim the right to vote.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., October 2.—The news from Mazatlan announces the capture of that city by the pronunciamentoes on the 13th ult. Flores was captured with several others, and will be tried by court martial. Many acts of cruelty have been committed by the victors since their entry.

LONDON, ENG., October 2.—A terrible accident occurred this morning 40 a passenger train, from this city for Edinburg. While running at a very rapid rate it came in collision, near Kirtle Bridge, with a freight train Nine persons were killed and many wounded. It is feared that several will die.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, October 2.—The funeral obsequies of Dr. Vinton at Trinity Church today was unusually solemn and impressive. The attendance was very large.

The General Commissioner of Tammany Hall filled more vacancies this evening resulting from disaffections.

The sub committee of the Reform Association met to-day, and named a committee of fifteen, with Judge Pierrepont as Chairman, to wait on Wm. F. Havemeyer next Monday evening, and tender him the nomination for Mayor in behalf of the various reform organizations of the city.

RALEIGH, N. C., October 2.—A jury of inquest was held to-day over the body of Dr. J. Irving Smith, who died suddenly here on yesterday. Strong evidence of poison was discovered, but no verdict rendered. The stomach of the deceased will be sent to Philadelphia to-morrow for examination. It is thought to be almost certain that death was occasioned by drinking Sciditz Powders, but as to how the poison came in it has not been ascertained.

LONDON, ENG., October 2.—A later dispatch from Carlisle says that eleven persons were killed by a railway collision this morning. The number injured is not stated.

During the past three months 32,000 emigrants have sailed from Liverpool for America.

A dispatch from Welhoam, dated September 11, says that the overland telegraph line has been completed.

PARIS, October 2.—The departures from Alsace and Lorraine of inhabitants who decline to assume German citizenship are on an immense scale. It is estimated that 80,000 are emigrating from Alsace and will take up their residence in Nancy alone, while large numbers will go to other places.

Eighteen thousand persons left Metz within the last fortnight to seek homes under French jurisdiction. The population of that city now numbers only 10,000.

☞ Recently a preacher of Peru, Indiana, forgot an engagement to marry a couple, and went to bed. When the bride and groom arrived at his house they were considerably astonished at hearing he was in bed. The groom remarked: "Well, this is thunderin' mean, anyhow. Nellie, I suppose we'll have to adjourn it to some other time." "I came here to get married," said the gentle Nellie, 'an' married I'm goin' to be before I leave this ere gospel shop. If he doesn't git up an' come down an' do the speech I'll go to his bedroom an' put a head on him an' drag him out here in his shirt. I'll do it in five minutes, or I ain't an honest woman." The minister descended ere the lapse of five minutes, and the young couple soon went on their way rejoicing.

THIRD WARD DEMOCRATS.—Remember the meeting to-night at the City Hall to reorganize.

CITY COURT.—This court, presided over by Judge Cowart, will meet on Monday next.

JUSTICE COURTS.—Clean "slates" at all of the courts yesterday, as far as criminal business was concerned.

ADDRESS.—Rev. John C. Burruss, of Alabama, will address our citizens on temperance in Trinity Church to-night.

AT LAST.—The bed of the street railroad on Decatur street, in front of the Kimball House is being lowered.

SEE announcement of Frank P. Rice for Alderman of the Fifth Ward. Frank is a good fellow and will make a good Alderman.

THE millinery opening of the London Store all day yesterday was crowded and continues to-day.

CHAMPION BILL POSTERS.—Anderson & Hobson are the champion bill posters of the South. They have ten thousand feet of lumber up for bills. They post and paste with unsurpassed haste.

THOMPSON.—Thompson, the wide awake and untiring, has erected in front of his popular restaurant a neat stand, where he proposes to keep fish and game for families.

HEBREW ANNIVERSARIES.—To-day and to-morrow is the New Year holiday of the Hebrews. The Day of Atonement comes on the 12th.

FREE LUNCH AT THE H. I. KIMBALL HOUSE.—From and after this date, Thursday, the 3d October, there will be a free lunch set in the bar-room from 11 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 10 P. M. to 12 P. M. Will open this morning with oyster soup.
WM. M. NICHOLS, Proprietor.

ATLANTA, GA., October 2, 1872.—In consequence of the Jewish New Year Festival, the store of Steinheimer Bro's will be closed on Thursday, the 3d instant.

FAIRS.—The fair at Union Point, in Greene county, comes off next week. Fairs will be in full blast all over the State soon, as this is the season of cattle shows, mammoth squashes, preposterous potatoes, absurd hogs, and colossal bulls.

GOOD.—A Forsyth county gentleman thinks that THE CONSTITUTION and prayer will carry a man to heaven!

FUNERAL.—Mr. F. Krogg, Sr., an old and respected citizen was buried yesterday afternoon. A large number of Odd Fellows and citizens attended the funeral.

Go and see Holbrooks' illuminated.

BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS.—Dr. R. F Sims, who can be found at the corner of Harris and Ivy streets, will canvass among our citizens for two most exquisite engravings.
One is entitled "The Mother of our Lord," and is one of the most attractive and desirable pictures we ever saw. It is twenty-two by thirty inches and should be on every house wall in the city.
The other picture is "Christ Mourning Over Jerusalem." This too is a fine engraving.
They come into a brace of rare pictures, and deserve to have a large sale. Both as works of art and instruction deserve patronage.
oct2-2t

A MATCH.—At threading needles, the competitors to be ladies not less than seventy years of age, is on the cards in New York City. No spectacles are to be worn. How would something of the kind do at our State Fair.

STATE FAIR.—The number of entries up to this time greatly exceed the number made for any previous Fair so long before hand. In this respect the prospect is very encouraging for a good fair. On yesterday Barlow county entered for the $500 in gold premium.

MARRIED.—In Baltimore, September 23d, Mr. R. B. Hodgson, of Athens, Georgia, to Miss Annie Strahan, of the former place.
In Bairdstown, September 25th, Mr. A. H. Hodgson, of Athens, to Miss Julia Neal, of the former place.
We congratulate these young gentlemen upon having found and united themselves with kindred spirits, hearts that can commune with their own. Each day may the golden chain of happiness that binds them be entwined with the roses of love. May life be to them all sunshine, and the earth all brightness. May no cloud obscure their horizon, creating tempests, but may they realize a paradise on earth: Blest spring of Hymen, when the path is strewn with flowers and whose sun shines benificent and pure.

GRAND OPENING.—J. M. Holbrook, the Prince of Hatters, will have his grand opening today, at his Hat Emporium on Whitehall street. The handsomest display of styles in hats for ladies and gentlemen ever seen in Atlanta will be exhibited. Everybody is invited. The first floor is devoted to gentlemen and the second floor to ladies. What Holbrook don't know about hats is not worth knowing. Come out and see the latest agony.

WEATHER.—Yesterday was a good day. Pleasant, but none too warm. Breezy, but not boisterous. The sunlight was glorious and the atmosphere great. Flies, mosquitoes, and other summer pestiferous insects will soon depart under the lowering temperature of the month just inaugurated.

A COMPLIMENT.—The last number of that most excellent magazine, the Waverly, re-publishes a beautiful poem, "A Dream that was not a Dream," by one of Atlanta's poets, Mr. Orion Doster. The poem deserved republishing.

ISLE.—We regretted yesterday at seeing numbers of white and colored men knocking about the streets pretty much all day after voting. In fact the number of idle people seems rather to increase in Atlanta, particularly of colored people. As the fruit is the country disappears and cool weather approaches, that perhaps drives them to the city. But all should work, be employed. Activity is a universal law; it is the idea of life, of health, of employment. It is God's law that man should be active, and man's bond, his pleasure and his usefulness is secured by it.

LOCKED FOR.—One of the city officers was on the look out on route-day for a colored thief, one Patrick Henry. As he long since pronounced for "liberty or death," it will not do to cage him if caught, as he probably might suicide.

COURTS.—DeKalb Superior Court adjourned yesterday until the regular term.
Fulton Superior Court will commence on the 21st. Until that time the energetic Solicitor General can engage in more congenial courting!

Daily Constitution: The manner in which droves of horses and mules are driven through the streets of this city is not only disgraceful but extremely dangerous to the lives of the citizens. Yesterday morning about nine o'clock a drove of mules and horses driven by several negroes rushed down Pryor street at full speed, and came very near causing several accidents of a serious nature, in sight of the writer.
Is there no remedy for this great abuse?

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA, October 2d, 1872.—No. 6, Cherokee Circuit. L. Garner, et al. vs. W. W. Gibbs. Ejectment, from Murray. Argument concluded. Johnson & McCamy, for plaintiffs in error. D. A. Walker, by brief, contra.
No. 2. J. J. Reid et al. vs. Z. D. Flipper. Complaint from Catoosa. Argued. R. M. Dodson, W. H. Payne, for plaintiffs in error. D. A. Walker, by brief, contra.
No. 12. R. A. Whitman vs. James Bolling. Complaint, from Catoosa. Argued. R. M. Dodson, W. H. Payne, for plaintiff in error. J. H. Anderson, A. T. Reese, represented by W. H. Dabney, contra.
No. 14. J. W. Home et al. vs. J. Polk Howell et al. Ejectment, from Whitfield. McCutchen & Shumate, by brief, for plaintiffs in error. D. A. Walker, Johnson & McCamy, contra.
Pending the argument of R. J. McCamy, Esq., the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow.

FULTON AND BIBB—DEMOCRATIC TICKET ELECTED BY 1,500.—The election in the wards passed off quietly yesterday. The negroes attempted to rescue a negro prisoner arrested for repeating as detailed on the first page, but were foiled.
The negroes voted pretty generally for the Radical nominees. Several prominent Radicals and one of the gentlemen on the Radical ticket voted, we are reliably informed, a full Democratic ticket.
At the closing of the polls the negroes made a rush for the ballot box. A collision seemed imminent, but was prevented by the prudence, firmness and promptness of the police force. All praise to the police.
Early in the day one or two prominent Radicals reminded the writer of an account of a traveler once in speaking of a frog over a town, he watched a rooster on a fence crowing. He stated that he sung out cock-a-doo, then the frog would get in his throat, which made him leave of the die-doo-oo-o Early in the day colored voters were hurried out and things seemed swimmingly, cock-a-doo was sung out, but before six o'clock, the Democrat so stuck in the throat that die-doo-oo-o was left out.
Radical documents have been sent to Fulton, and the Sherman, and Walker, and Maynard, and Quarle, and Farrow, have made their speeches, the pirate ship was made as beautiful as possible; painted with white and gold; had been overhauled, and freezed, but no use, for Fulton thank God, is done with such nefarious thing.
The majority for the Democratic ticket it is thought will re ch 1,200 or 1,500. The work of counting is not yet through with.

VOTE AT WEST END.

For Governor—James M. Smith, 214; Benjamin A. Walker, 78.
For Representatives—Clark Howell, 169; W. L. Calhoun, 169; E. F. Hoge, 169; C. W. Hubner, 16; L. Scofield, Sr., 14; M. G. Dobbins, 14.

VOTE AT BUCK HEAD.

Smith, 115; Walker, 10; Howell, 120; Calhoun, 97; Hoge, 97; Hubner, 3; Dobbins, 3; Scofield, 3.

VOTE AT ATLANTA PRECINCT.

Between twelve and one o'clock the managers adjourned over until this morning without completing the counting of the votes at the Atlanta precinct. The vote then stood: Smith, 2,150; Walker, 1,060. The vote for Representatives is only a few votes behind the Governor. By consent of parties, Justice Bull took charge of the ballot-box.

RESULT SO FAR.

Smith	3,679
Walker	1,026
Majority for Smith	1,261

The other precincts will increase Smith's majority. The Representatives are elected by 1,500 majority, at least.

DEGRYSE.—Maritana was rendered finely by the English Opera Troupe last night. To-night will be given for the first time Offenbach's opera burlesque, "Lischen and Fritzchen." A whimsical, allegorical and perverted version of Tennyson's poem entitled "The Princess" will be given. This is a rich and attractive bill. If you would laugh and grow fat, go to DeGive's to-night.

Local and Business Notices.

ATLANTA MINERAL SPRING CURES.—Mr. Sanders: I had been suffering for five years with a very severe case of Dyspepsia. I commenced using the water of the Atlanta Mineral Springs—felt the beneficial effects of the water, and was entirely cured after its use twice a day for two months. I hereby recommend it to all afflicted as I was.
Yours, etc., JAS. STEWART,
Coweta County, Georgia.

Mr. Sanders: From long illness I was reduced to a skeleton—was generally debilitated—had no appetite, etc. I commenced using the Atlanta Mineral Spring water, and in less than a week commenced to improve; my appetite became better than ever; could eat and digest any kind of food, and soon gained flesh at the rate of three-fourths of a pound daily. J. M. MOORE, M. D.,
Houston County, Georgia.

Mr. Sanders: I can and do cordially recommend the Atlanta Mineral Spring water for the cure of Rheumatism. It is well to use it in bathing as well as drinking. I had had the disease for years and suffered excruciatingly, and was entirely cured by this water, while every other remedy, that I had used, failed to do me any permanent good.
Yours truly, J. M. MCCARTHY.

ORDINARY'S OFFICE, September 7, 1872.

To the heirs at law and legatees of James Kyle, late of said county deceased, who resids out of the State of Georgia.
I, the undersigned from the petition of John A. Dozier, this said James Kyle, on the 23d March, 1868, executed to Rebecca Otto and Louisa Belcher, his bond for titles, by which he bound himself, upon the payment of the purchase money, to make titles to the said Rebecca and Louisa, or their assigns to a certain lot in the city of Atlanta, in said county, "beginning at the junction of Forsyth and Walker streets, running twenty-five feet on Forsyth street, and running back to Walker about sixty feet, and fronting on Walker street twenty-five feet, and that the said Rebecca and Louisa have fully paid the purchase price of said lot, and for value received executed said bond to said Rebecca and Louisa, and failed to be made to him or his assigns, and said James Kyle died without executing titles to said lot, or in any way perfecting the title of the said Dozier, and by this day petitioned the undersigned for an order directing the administrator of the said James Kyle to execute to him titles to said lot in conformity with said bond.
Therefore you will take notice that said application will be heard at my office on the first Monday in November, 1872, when and where you can show cause, if any you have, why said order should not be granted.

THE PRAYER.

A pair of dimpled knees bent on the floor,
Two little dove-like eyes half shut in sleep,
A little gold-ringed head—this through the door
I hear—asking the Lord "I crystal soul" to keep.
The crimson cheeks seem by dewy fingers stained:
The dimpled hands, clasped by the angels, seem
As sunset's amber, o'er her head is rained,
Kindling her curls with many a tapering gleam.

Wreathed are her tiny feet with stories old,
Till rose leaf memory here, methinks I see,
Her wings them in their soft, ethereal fold,
With love's protection, to the dimpled knee;
For still the baby-songs and tales will please,
As when at first, like bits from silken skein,
She tried to knot them, sitting on my knee,
In baby secrets, into threads again.

The little velvet lips just parted are,
Through which the white-winged thoughts troop forth to rise,
As through an opening bud, perfumes star
Invisibly are wafted to the skies.
Now to her downy couch my darling's crept,
Where her bright curls, like jonquils in the snow,
Gleam out, as if the sunbeams there had swept
A little rift for such sweet flowers to grow.

HEBREW GENIUS.

Intellectual Triumph of J. P. Benjamin, the New Rival of D'Israeli.

It was announced by "Cablegram," that J. P. Benjamin, Confederate Secretary of State and Minister of War, at the instance of the Lord Chancellor (Hathaway) has been raised to the rank of Queen's Counsel, the leaders of the English bar. The London Standard says:

We trust there are none of Mr. Benjamin's former copatriots and competitors in the courts of the United States who will not rejoice to hear that their comrade has achieved success in his new career, and is once more restored to a position not unworthy of his talents and industry, however far below that which he might have held, and did once hold, in his native land.

Benjamin is now an old man—but as an English barrister he is probably the youngest that ever appeared in a silk gown. Twenty years ago, at the age of forty, he was among the foremost pleaders of the United States, and represented Louisiana in the Federal Senate. Ten years ago he had resigned that position on the secession of his State, and was first Secretary of War and then Secretary of State in the government of the ill-rated Confederacy. In the former post it was his misfortune to be officially responsible for evils and disasters which no resources at his command could avert; to have, under the supreme direction of a chief whose special aptitude and experience were those of a war minister to maintain without money, without ships, without artillery, with scanty supplies of arms and ammunition, and very inadequate numbers, a life and death struggle against the overwhelming power of the North. His vindication lies in the fact that it took four years to crush the Confederate States. As Secretary of the State, and director of the foreign policy of the government, he was confessedly as successful as the circumstances permitted. In 1865 the fall of Richmond sent the Confederate government into banishment, and the capture of the President finally dissolved it. Mr. Benjamin was fortunate to escape into exile—a ruined man, a great lawyer, a man of fortune and position in his native land, late First Minister of an incipient Commonwealth, he had to begin life again at the age of fifty-five in a foreign country, and without any of the advantages of fortune, interest or connection which he had won in the course of a long and laborious career. Most men would have sunk into dispair and apathy, finding their own fortunes and the hopes of their country ruined by the same blow, and compelled at so advanced an age to start again with all the difficulties of youth, but without the strength and spirits of youth to conquer them. Not a few would have been simply stunned by the depth of the fall. Not so with Mr. Benjamin. The late First Minister of his country recommenced life as a law student; the leading lawyer began again to learn the laws of another country. He was called to the bar after a year's study—a becoming and rightful concession to his years and learning, but one which, as Mr. Benjamin would be the first to acknowledge, scarcely any bar but that of England would have made in favor of the foreigner and an exile. Still the former leader had to take rank as the junior or juniors; and in that position it is very difficult for a barrister to obtain lucrative or important business, seeing that the etiquette of the bar places the lead in every case, in the hands of the senior counsel engaged, and that the junior's work is at once the least distinguished, the worst paid, and the fullest of mere drudgery. Mr. Benjamin had but this one incidental advantage, that the close of the war had entailed certain suits between the United States government and the agents of the Confederacy of Europe, and in some of those he was retained by the latter, and the conduct of the cause left in his hands. Such a man needed only an opportunity of proving his quality. Mr. Benjamin forced solicitors to recognize him as one of the best lawyers at the common law bar; his professional brethren treated him with generous respect and consideration, and within six years from his admission to the bar, he has achieved a position of which the rank now bestowed is but the formal sanction and acknowledgment. Nevertheless, we give Lord Hatherley credit for a just and graceful act, as we give credit to the bar for their prompt decision to call Mr. Benjamin after a year's study, waiving all technical rules and usages in his favor. He had such fair as good will and courtesy would give to a stranger, and nothing more. The victory he has achieved is due to no favor or interest, but purely and simply to his unquestionable superiority as an English lawyer, after but seven years spent in England.

HELP YOURSELF.—Fight your own battles. Hoe your own row. Ask no favors of any one, and you'll succeed five thousand times better than one who is beseeching some one's influence or patronage. No one will ever help you as you can help yourself, because no one will be so heartily interested in your affairs. The step will not be such a long one, perhaps; but carving your own way up the mountain, you make one lead to another, and stand firm in that while you chop still another out.

Men who made fortunes are not those who had five thousand dollars given to start with, but boys who have started fair with a well-earned dollar or two. Men who have acquired fame have never been thrust into popularity by puffs bought or paid for, or given in friendly spirit. They have stretched out their own hands and touched the public heart.

Men who win love do their own wooing, and I never knew a man fail to signally as one who induced his first sweetheart grandmama to speak a good word for him. Whether your work for fame, for love, for money, or for anything else, work with your hands and heart and brain, say, "I will," and some day you will conquer. Never let any man have to say, "I have dragged you up." Too many friends sometimes hurt a man more than none at all.—Grace Greenwood.

JOHN OF REYNOLDS.—As illustrating the intelligence of the party that claims to be the owner of that equestrian jure divino, our friend Captain W. B. tells the following: "Auditor Reynolds addressed a large crowd of colored troops at Marion not long since, and in the midst of a rather dull speech, which, up to that point, had fallen in wet blanket style upon the crowd, he sang out at the top of his sentorian voice, "They c-a-r-g-e Gen. Grant Yee-po-tism!" Instantly a thousand voices rent the air in the wildest acclaim. Hats were thrown up, hands were clapped together until their palms burned with the concussion, and the "hurrahs" and other fiendish yells feared the eloquent gentlemen to pause in the midst of his harangue and wonder what sharp thing he had said to provoke such an unexpected, but enthusiastic demonstration. All at once it seemed to occur to him that the use of that word "Nepotism" had "did the deed." As the truth dawned upon him his countenance assumed a puzzled expression and his feeble faculties were so visibly stirred by the supreme ridiculousness of the contretemps that it had well nigh refused the remainder of his speech. He has sworn off from "Nepotism" however.—Montgomery Advertiser.

SWEDENBORGIANISM.—The New Church movement appears to be making headway, not only in this city, but all over the State, judging from the following, which we find in the Memphis Appeal of Friday: "There are several societies or knots of persons in this city that meet now and then in friends' houses for the purpose of studying the works of Swedenborg, with the view of evolving therefrom some spiritual or divine truth. They are in earnest. There appears to be a movement of this sort going on all over the State."

LASTING LOVELINESS.—Twenty years ago when paint, pearl powder and enamel, were ruining the complexions and destroying the health of women of fashion, Hagan's Magnolia Balm was brought out as a pure botanical cosmetic, guaranteed to restore bloom and beauty to the skin. From that time to the present it has been continually rising in public estimation as the safest and most unexceptionable preparation of its class. Instead of producing an artificial, metallic surface, like the deadly enamels, or wilting the cuticle like the poisonous fluids sold under various names as "beautifiers," it keeps the skin as soft as velvet, renders it as smooth and glossy as satin, and imparts to it that delicate, rosy tinge, which is the beau ideal of complexional loveliness. This exquisite chromatic effect is not transient. By applying the Balm daily it may be prolonged from youth to age. A lady who purchased the first bottle of the article nineteen years ago, writes to say that her complexion at forty is "pure, clear and more brilliant than it has ever been," and she attributes its beauty solely to the daily use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

NATURAL DECAY—PROTEST THE SYSTEM. The human body is a machine, and therefore cannot endure forever; but, like a watch or a sewing machine, it will last much longer if properly regulated and duly repaired, than if no pains were taken to keep it in order. The great object of every one who desires a long and healthy life should be to put his body in a condition to resist the life-threatening influences by which we are all more or less surrounded; and no invigorant and corrective at present known so effectively answers this purpose as the vitalizing elixir which, under the unpretending name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has been for more than twenty years the standard tonic of America. In crowded cities, where the atmosphere is contaminated with the effluvia inseparable from large populations; in marshy regions, where the soggy soil reeks with miasma; on the prairies and in the forests, where every fall the air is tainted with exhalations from rotting weeds and grasses, or decomposing leaves—in short, in every locality where malaria exists, this powerful vegetable antidote is urgently needed. Fever and ague, bilious fevers, dysentery, congestion of the liver, jaundice, rheumatism, and all diseases which are generated by infected air, impure water, or sudden changes of temperature, may be averted by strengthening and regulating the system in advance with Hostetter's Bitters. Autumn is always a season of peril, especially to weak, susceptible organizations. Even the more vigorous are apt to be in some measure depressed by the lurid atmosphere, loaded with deleterious gases produced by vegetable decay. The fall is a period of the year when the renovation and regulation of the living machine is peculiarly important, and the Bitters should therefore be taken daily at this critical season.

BLESSINGS brighten as they take their flight. The chief of blessings is good health, without which nothing is worth the having; it is always appreciated at its true value after it is lost, but too often not before. Live properly, and correct ailments before they become seated. For diseases of the liver, kidneys, skin, stomach, and all arising from impure or feeble blood, Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are a sure and speedy remedy. It has never yet failed in a single instance.

IF EITHER IS ELECTED

EVERY PERSON IN THE STATE

will want to get late some business that they can

MAKE A HANDSOME THING OF.

We have two articles of our own invention and patent that is needed in every household, and must sell readily at sight, paying large profits—for which we wish to sell territory. We have all the territory of the United States to sell or exchange for gold or silver, except the States of Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Alabama and three counties in the State of Georgia.

One of our articles is a cheese and potatoe and Peach Slicer and Halver. With this machine, one hand can do the work of six or eight hands, and at the same time increasing the value of the fruit 25 to 50 per cent; when sliced, and it makes the peach in strictly first class order, by prevents worms from getting in the dried fruit.

These, in selling the machines, can make very easily from Five to Fifty Dollars per day, clear of all expense.

Having been a cotton planter, and being fond of farming, I would exchange the right to one or both articles for a reasonable amount of territory for a good plantation, with or without stock and provisions, in South Georgia or Middle Florida.

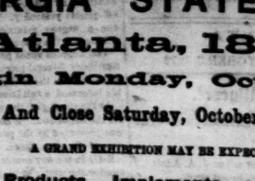
INZA

For Cure $1. (or Test Sample 25 cents,) by mail, Dr. E. P. EVATT, 246 Grand Street, New York.



It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a most powerful tonic and alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

retains all the medical virtues peculiar to the plan and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

Is there want of action in your Liver and Spleen? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotches, Felons, Pustules, Pimples, etc., etc.

Take JURUBEBA to cleanse, purify and restore the vitalized blood to healthy action.

Have you a Dyspeptic Stomach! Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the blood, dropsical tendency, general weakness or lassitude.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction, it will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

Have you a weakness of the Intestines? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhoea or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

Have you weakness of the Uterine or Urinary Organs? You must procure instant relief or you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases.
